

LEADERSHIP HUDSON

A P P L I C A T I O N

CLASS OF 2025

LEADERSHIP HUDSON is a nine-month program that introduces participants to the City of Hudson, its businesses and community leaders with the goal that at the program conclusion, participants will serve Hudson in future leadership positions. In addition to valuable self development of leadership skills, the program provides the opportunity for the class to develop its own unique project that will benefit the wider Hudson community.

VII. PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS & COMMITMENT

The LEADERSHIP HUDSON Program expectations consists of ten sessions both in-person (Typically 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.) and possibly virtual, over the course of nine months. Participants are also required to complete a class service project to benefit the community. Tuition for the 2025 program is set at $795. Ability to pay tuition in full should not be a barrier to those applicants whose tuition is not paid by a sponsoring organization or employer. Applicants who are self-paid may request partial tuition remission in the optional attachment (pg. 5).

Participants are expected to fully dedicate their time and focus to Leadership Hudson during the class sessions. Participants missing multiple sessions may be asked to withdraw in which case tuition will not be refunded. I understand the above commitment.
